

Ipswitch Announces the Release of IMail Server Version 12

The new release of IMail Server v12 on January 31, 2012 boasts significant improvements to the IMail Server web client which include, but is not limited to the following:

- All new tabbed user interface for enhanced usability
- Capability to Import/Export user contact information
- Notes and Tasks are now available with the Web Client to be included with Calendar, Contacts and E-mail for synchronization with Outlook
- Meeting Requests are now available allowing the ability to create and accept using the new Web Client for synchronization with Outlook when IMail Collaboration is in place
- RSS Feed now available for user's subscriptions
- Web Sites configurable by the IMail Administrators allowing easy online access for common web links
- New Report Spam feature (Premium Only)
- Sound and blinking tab notifications when new mail arrives (capability to customize on a per user level)
- Greatly enhanced iclient.config file allows IMail Administrators greater capability to customize the web client to their user's needs
- Away message indicator above the navigator folders to remind user's when enabled
- Tool tips show mail folders that have Auto responders enabled
- Expanded Contact Information (multiple addresses, websites, personal information, business information)
- Addresses contain link to google maps or the map engine specified by the user
- Customizable user option to set a default address book, and a default contact sort
- Users can now create multiple personal contact folders
- Photos are now supported and can now be added for contacts
- Customizable user option to set a default calendar
- Customizable user options to specify and display the beginning time and end time for the work day

- Customizable user option to set the default calendar display by day, week or month
- Users can now create multiple personal calendar folders
- Calendar display format is set to the 12 hour (am/pm) time
- Web Client user access is now being written to the API Logs
- Lite Web Client to support mobile devices for Email, Contacts, Calendaring, Tasks and Notes
- Easier branding for customizing and displaying company logos, colors, and text (View the all new branding whitepaper here.)
- Easier method to create custom language files for the new web client
- New Web Client Themes with the ability for customers to create their own themes
- Capability to disable the Web Client Forwarding of user's email
- New user option to warn a user when sending a message without an attachment, when body of the letter uses the word attachment
- New user option to warn a user when sending a message without a subject
- Ability to have initial login open a specified folder (e.g. email folder, calendars, tasks, etc...)
- And much more...

For a complete list of new features and improvements for IMail Server v12 please read the full release notes online: IMail Server v12 Release Notes.